PROACTIVE

One of the many reasons Jennifer enjoys working at ORBA is that the firm's client-focused philosophy aligns with her own. When it comes to clients, Jennifer believes in being proactive and is always looking for ways to improve clients' business functions and compliance procedures.

OUTSIDE OF THE OFFICE

Outside the office, you can find Jennifer at one of her daily workout sessions, cooking for her family, going to church or shuttling her kids around to the pool, martial arts classes, soccer or a weekend road trip. She enjoys teaching her children to enjoy the many opportunities available to them. Jennifer is as happy at boisterous family get-togethers as she is reading a good book.
