Tanya has been with the firm for ten years. She is a member of ORBA's Tax Group where she focuses her time on managing and preparing tax returns for various family groups. This includes preparation of business, individual, trust, and foundation tax returns.

PROACTIVE

Tanya finds ways to provide value to her clients through education and training. She is always available to answer questions, review strategies and provide consultation. In order to stay current with new industry issues, she looks for opportunities with continuing education classes focusing on the needs of the clients she serves.
