KELSEY SHLEYNER, CPA

MANAGER

kshleyner@orba.com

📞 312.670.7444

Kelsey Shleyner joined ORBA in 2013. Kelsey has experience in both the for-profit and non-profit industries performing assurance engagements for clients of varying size. She also has experience preparing tax returns for not-for-profit, individuals and corporations.

PROACTIVE

Kelsey is always available to her clients to address their questions and concerns. She takes the time to listen and understand the client's point of view in order to arrive at a mutual understanding that will positively impact all parties involved. She enjoys speaking with clients to better understand their perspective, as it leads her to being a more proficient source for handling all of their issues and needs today and in the future.

OUTSIDE OF THE OFFICE

Outside of the office, Kelsey enjoys spending her free time exploring Chicago and the surrounding suburbs with her family. From spending time exploring landmarks ranging from Lincoln Park Zoo to the Morton Arboretum, she continues to discover wonderful aspects of the area that remind her how there is always something new and different to experience. Whenever possible, she also likes to travel both near and far - from visiting France and Italy to the Great Smoky Mountains to Austin, Texas; Kelsey loves to take in new destinations with her loved ones.
