Maria is a senior in ORBA's Audit Group. She began her career at the firm in 2020 as a tax intern and then transitioned to the Quality Control Department as a proofreader. She is skilled in reviewing financial statement reports, preparing tax returns and conducting tax research.

PROACTIVE

With a data-driven mindset and solid communication skills, Maria assists clients with their specific needs, recognizing opportunities and delivering insightful solutions. When collaborating with colleagues on client engagements, she relies on her previous experience in training and managing teams to ensure successful results.

OUTSIDE OF THE OFFICE

Outside of the office, Maria enjoys spending time with her family, listening to crime podcasts, baking and crafting coffee recipes. She stays active by going on walks, working out at the gym and playing volleyball.
