📞 312.670.7444

Dan Cameron is a Transaction Advisory Analyst in the firm's Tax Group. He has more than 17 years of experience in public accounting, working with corporations, individuals and partnerships in several industries, including manufacturing, e-commerce and technology. Dan is skilled in handling a wide range of mergers and acquisition matters for closely-held, middle-market and private equity clients, including planning to minimize taxes and leading tax due diligence engagements. Additionally, he is proficient in managing the income tax compliance process and providing tax advice to minimize or defer federal and state income tax liabilities for his clients. Dan is also experienced in representing clients before the IRS and state jurisdictions in examinations and other tax controversies and performing client engagement activities.

PROACTIVE

Dan understands that every transaction is unique. He takes the time to listen to his clients, in order to better understand their goals and answer any questions that arise. Dan leverages his experience and works closely with members from the Tax Group to minimize taxes and achieve the overall personal and business goals of clients' transactions.

OUTSIDE OF THE OFFICE

Outside of the office, Dan loves traveling with his family to all kinds of parks, including MLB ballparks, National Parks and Disney Theme Parks. Dan also enjoys volunteering as a coach for his son's football team and watching his children play a variety of travel sports with his wife.
