Jeffrey Hild is an accomplished and strategic professional services marketing professional with a rich background in communications, marketing, business development and client relations. Jeff has spearheaded significant corporate communications initiatives, business development, coaching and strategic planning programs for both accounting and law firms with up to 150 professionals.

PROACTIVE

Jeff brings vision, inspiration and direction to the firm's marketing efforts, earning a reputation from our professionals for consistently providing desired results.

OUTSIDE OF THE OFFICE

Jeff and his wife love walking, biking and running on the many trails located throughout their hometown of Naperville. They also enjoy attending the many Chicago and Naperville area festivals and events held throughout the year with their adult daughters, other family members and friends.

Jeff is a member of the City of Naperville Human Rights and Fair Housing Commission, a member of the board of directors of the Career & Networking Center nonprofit and is an elder with Knox Presbyterian Church where he is also a member of its ManKIND men's ministry council. As a ManKIND council member, for many years, Jeff has volunteered his time with its veteran's bed ministry that partners with the Midwest Shelter for Homeless Veterans to deliver beds and bedding to veterans in need throughout the greater Chicagoland area.
