Manny is a Tax Associate in ORBA's Tax Services Group, where he previously gained experience as a Tax Intern. In his current role, he prepares income tax returns and financial statements for individuals, S corporations, and estates and trusts. Manny also conducts tax research, supports audit preparation and risk assessment, and manages various compliance tasks, including preparing 1099s and 1096s. Additionally, he is responsible for handling accounts receivable, contributing to the overall efficiency and accuracy of the firm's tax operations.

PROACTIVE

Manny brings a solid foundation in tax law and accounting principles to ORBA, complemented by a strong proficiency in tax preparation software and financial systems. He consistently demonstrates sharp analytical and problem-solving skills, particularly when navigating complex tax regulations for clients. Manny's attention to detail is exceptional, and he excels at managing multiple deadlines while maintaining accuracy under pressure. A dependable team player, Manny approaches every engagement with a client-focused mindset, delivering timely, precise, and value-driven service.

OUTSIDE OF THE OFFICE

Outside of the office, Manny enjoys activities like working out, playing golf, and spending time with family and friends.
